ARRIVAL OF THE AFRICA AT HALIFAX.

REOPENING OF NEGOTIATIONS.

CAPTURE OF KINBURN.

PROGRESS OF THE SIEGE.

Russian Night Attacks Continued.

Great Sales Still Advised in Cotton—Consols 91 3-4.

(By the Nova Scotia Telegraph Office to Wall-st.)

HALIFAX, Tuesday, June 5.

The Royal Mail steamship Africa, Captain HARRISON, from Liverpool on Saturday afternoon, the 26th ult., entered here at 4:30 P. M. to-day. She was off this port nearly all day yesterday, but unable to enter owing to the thick weather.

The news is of an interesting character and commercially it is highly important.

In the Liverpool Cotton market, the week's sales reached over 100,000 bales; the largest business ever known, and prices had considerably advanced.

Consols had advanced about ¾ per cent., closing at 91¾.

The Africa reports speaking, May 30, in the English Channel, the U. S. steamer Atlantic from New-York.

The Washington sailed from Southampton for New-York on the 23d of May, with 289 passengers.

Reopening of Negotiations.

On the 16th of May, Count BUOL, on behalf of Austria, had an interview with Lord WESTMORELAND and Count BOURQUENEY, and suggested that the members of the Conference should meet again. The French and English Ministers could not give a reply, but it is understood that if they assent to a meeting, Count BUOL will then again attempt to arrange the third point.

Berlin papers report that the Austrian mediatory proposals are that Russia and Turkey settle between themselves the number of ships they will keep in the Black Sea—England and France to keep each two ships therein, and Turkey undertaking not to enter into any treaty with Russia unless submitted to France and England.

According to Vienna papers the Conference will be reopened, and a meeting would be held Saturday, the 26th, without the Russian Plenipotentiaries, and another on Monday, the 28th, at which they would be present. Lord PALMERSTON's explanations in Parliament would indicate that these meetings are preliminary only.

The Austrian Envoy, M. RECHBERG, leaves immediately for Frankfort, to urge the immediate mobilization of the German Federal forces. It is also further reported that Austria has sent secret circulars to all the German Courts, insisting that each State shall specify distinctly the line of conduct it means to follow.

The New Plan of Operations.

General PELLISSIER's appointment is immensely popular, and operations on a great scale are confidently looked for. It is mentioned that PELLISSIER will make a bold attempt to cut off LIPRANDI's army. It is said that Omar PASHA had offered to take and hold Simpheropol with his Turks, if the French will support his advance. The secret expedition which recently sailed from Kertch is reported to have again sailed, destination unknown. The present strength of these French Divisions under Generals AUREL, HERBILLON and ANDRÉ, makes the Allied force in the Crimea about 200,000, namely: 120,000 French; 30,000 British; 40,000 Turkish; 11,000 Sardinian.

All the troops from the Camp of Maslem have been shipped to the Crimea.

The Siege.

The correspondence from the English Camp of May 6, says the army is well supplied with luxuries as well as necessaries, but some fever and cholera still prevailed. Many improvements have been made at Balaklava harbor. Hired labor is abundant.

May 10.—A severe combat took place during the night along the right attack, and the musket and bayonet were used for an hour and a half, when the Russians retired under the cover of their batteries. The city and allied batteries then kept up a hot fire for two hours longer. The loss is considerable on both sides, but the number is not yet reported.

May 11.—Another Russian attack was made to-night. The night was very dark and the fight lasted half an hour.

MAY 12.—During a severe storm of rain and the darkness of the night, the Russians made another sortie against the left attack, charging close up to the British trenches, and some of them leaping over the parapets; they were bayonetted. They fought most desperately. The rain having damaged their ammunition they attacked with rockets. Their loss was severe. The British lost a Captain and over a hundred killed and wounded.

MAY 13.—GORTSCHAKOFF telegraphs: The enemy's fire is weak. Our losses moderate. Both sides are repairing and erecting batteries. The battles before the walls are severe.

May 24.—General PELLISSIER telegraphs as follows: A very lively combat against our important position has lasted all night. We obtained a complete success. The enemy's loss was enormous, and ours considerable.

The Paris Patrie gives further particulars, stating that the French attacked the Russian entrenchment camp near the Quarantine bastion on the night of the 22d, and again on the 23d, when they carried it by assault. The battle was begun by the Russians.

PARIS, Saturday Morning.

LONDON, Saturday, May 26—12:30 P. M.

The Moniteur of to-day contains a dispatch from Gen. PELLISSIER, dated May 25, stating as follows: The French on the 25th of May occupied a large place d'armis between the central bastions and the sea shore, where the enemy would collect large forces. The enemy ceded the more easily, having sustained enormous losses on the preceding day.

GREAT BRITAIN.

A great debate took place in Parliament on the evening of the 24th. DISRAELI brought forward a motion of want of confidence, supporting that Parliament cannot adjourn for a recess without expressing its dissatisfaction with the ambiguous language and uncertain conduct of the Government, in reference to the question of peace or war, and that under these circumstances the House feels it a duty to declare that it still continues to give every support to the Queen in the prosecution of the war, and to her Majesty's Ministers, for Alice, she shall obtain a safe and honorable peace.

Sir FRANCIS BARING, on behalf of the Government, offered as an amendment that the House having seen with regret the failure of the Vienna Conference, it will continue to give every support to continue the War until as honorable peace be obtained.

Sir WM. HEATHCOTE moved to alter the amendments by inserting the words, "and still cherish a desire that the communication in progress may arrive at that successful issue."

Mr. GLADSTONE approved of the amendment of Mr. HEATHCOTE.

D'ISRAELI and his supporters lashed the Government, especially Lords PALMERSTON and RUSSELL.

Lord J. RUSSELL replied, defending his conduct at Vienna, when the debate was adjourned.

The debate was resumed on Friday evening, when the House divided, the vote being 310 in favor of DISRAELI's motion, and 319 against it—a majority of 100 for the Government.

Earl GREY made a similar motion in the House of Lords, but withdrew it.

The bill for abolishing newspaper stamps was read for the second time in the House of Lords.

The Bishop of Oxford has moved for the papers concerning the Canadian Bishops and Church.

Both Houses have adjourned until June 4.

On the 24th Lord PALMERSTON held a private meeting of the members of Parliament at his house. Over 200 were present. Lord PALMERSTON asserted the unanimity of his Government, and declared his intention of prosecuting the war. Other members also spoke, and on the whole the proceedings were harmonious.

It is expected that by the 20th of June, every available man in Great Britain, belonging to the infantry regiments, will have embarked for the war.

Some changes have been made in the War Department, by placing the Ordnance Department under the control of the Minister of War.

A deputation had recently seen Lord PALMERSTON, and expected to obtain an unconditional pardon for SMITH O'BRIEN.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

Liverpool Cotton Market.

The week's business is the largest on record. BROWN, SHIPLEY & Co., say: Since the departure of the last steamer there have been sales and exports in Cotton of the enormous of the week reaching the unprecedented quantity of 100,000 bales, including 70,000 on speculation, and 7,000 for export, at an advance of fully a farthing on low and middling, and an eighth on higher qualities of American. Fair Orleans, 6¼; Middling, 6; Fair Mobile, 6¼; Middling, 5 15-16; Fair Uplands, 6¼; Middling, 5 13-16; Ordinary to good Ordinary, 5 11-16; Inferior, 5 5-8. The sales on Friday, 26th, were 10,000 bales, one-half to the trade, closing very steady, but with less animation.

Great ease in money, and the large purchases of the trade, who, on their part, have obtained an equivalent advance on yarns and fabrics, have given confidence to operators, and it would not surprise us to see yet higher prices, although it appears generally probable that the trade, who are now well in stock, will sometime to follow speculators with the same determination as has been apparent in the past week. Stock—560,000 bales, including 350,000 bales American.

THE LIQUOR RIOT IN PORTLAND.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS.

TWO VERSIONS OF THE AFFAIR.

OUR AGENCY OF THE RIOT.

We published in Yesterday's issue an account of the melancholy riot in Portland, which resulted in the death of Deputy Sheriff TUTTLE, and the wounding of many others. Both parties were fully represented, and the statements of each were given with equal fairness. We have since received additional particulars, which we lay before our readers this morning.

The following communication, from a gentleman of this city, who was present during the whole affair, will be read with interest:

PORTLAND, Monday, June 4, 1855.

To the Associated Press Agent, New-York:

SIR: Having been present during the whole of the disturbances which occurred in this city on Saturday last, I have thought it my duty to forward you the following statement of the facts connected with the affair, which I have carefully collected from eye-witnesses, and which I believe to be entirely correct.

The Maine Liquor Law, which was passed by the Legislature at its last session, went into effect on the 1st of May, 1855. Since that time the sale of intoxicating liquors has been entirely prohibited, except for medicinal purposes, and by persons holding agencies appointed by the Mayor and Aldermen of the city. Many persons have been appointed agents, and have opened stores for the sale of liquors, and have been selling openly and publicly, paying no attention to the provisions of the law. Complaints have been frequently made to the Mayor and Aldermen, that the law was not enforced, and that liquor was sold openly in many places. The Mayor has frequently stated that he would enforce the law, and has issued warrants for the arrest of persons selling liquor illegally, but has not, as I am informed, issued any general order to the Police to enforce the law.

On Saturday morning, the 2d inst., the Mayor issued a warrant for the arrest of a man named HOWARD, for selling liquor illegally, and placed the warrant in the hands of Deputy Sheriff TUTTLE, for service. Mr. TUTTLE, with a posse of men, proceeded to the store of HOWARD, on Commercial-street, and found the door locked. He broke open the door, and entered the store, and found HOWARD and a number of persons in the store. He arrested HOWARD, and ordered the persons present to leave the store. They refused to do so, and a scuffle ensued, in which Mr. TUTTLE was severely injured. As soon as he was able to get away, he left the store, and proceeded to the City Hall, where he reported the facts to the Mayor and Aldermen, and stated that he had been unable to execute the warrant, and that he had been severely injured in the affray. The Mayor and Aldermen then issued a warrant for the arrest of the persons who had assaulted Mr. TUTTLE, and placed the warrant in the hands of Deputy Sheriff ROBERTS, for service. Mr. ROBERTS proceeded to the store of HOWARD, and found a number of persons there, who refused to allow him to enter. He broke open the door, and entered the store, and arrested HOWARD and two others, and started with them for the City Hall. On his way there, he was attacked by a mob, who attempted to rescue the prisoners from his custody. He succeeded in getting them to the City Hall, and placed them in the custody of the Police. The mob followed him to the City Hall, and attempted to break open the doors, but were prevented by the Police. They then proceeded to the store of HOWARD, and broke open the doors, and destroyed a large amount of liquor, and threw it into the street. They then proceeded to the store of Mr. DOW, and broke open the doors, and destroyed a large amount of liquor, and threw it into the street. They then proceeded to the store of Mr. CHADWICK, and broke open the doors, and destroyed a large amount of liquor, and threw it into the street. They then proceeded to the store of Mr. CHASE, and broke open the doors, and destroyed a large amount of liquor, and threw it into the street. They then proceeded to the store of Mr. SMITH, and broke open the doors, and destroyed a large amount of liquor, and threw it into the street. They then proceeded to the store of Mr. BROWN, and broke open the doors, and destroyed a large amount of liquor, and threw it into the street. They then proceeded to the store of Mr. HOWARD
